TERM OF CIVIL COURT IS ON AT UNIONTOWN; ONE CASE UP.

Suit of Frances E. Herd Against the B. & O. Is Taken Before Jury This Morning.

CONNELLSVILLE SUITS UP

Ralph DePolo Brings Action to Recover Claim From the Wallace Estate While P. Bufano Denies Debt of $100 to De Biasa.

UNIONTOWN, Jan. 10.—The adjourned term of December civil court began at Uniontown this morning with both judges on the bench. When the trial list for the week was called, 21 cases were ready for trial, eight have been continued, four settled and one non-suited because of the death of a defendant. The roll call of jurors found 54 of the 65 present. Two were non-residents and three had been excused. The others did not answer to their names.

The first case taken up was that of Frances E. Herd and others against the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, an old action to recover damages alleged to have been caused to the Herd bottom, near Connellsville. A jury was selected for this case just before noon.

Attorneys Sterling, Higbee & Matthews presented a petition to have the costs assessed the defendant in an assault and battery case against E. C. Thomas revoked. The reasons were that these costs were assessed against the weight of the evidence and the instructions of the court. While admitting the claim to be just, the court declared that the order could not be made.

Attorney T. P. Jones was named master in the divorce case of August Jennart against Elvina Jennart. In the divorce case of Samuel McCoy against Jennie McCoy, a rule on the libellant to show cause why he should not pay the respondent $100 counsel fees and $6 a week alimony was discharged because the divorce had been granted before testimony could be taken.

Alfred De Polo of Connellsville, has entered suit against Catherine M. Wallace administratrix of the estate of the late B. P. Wallace to recover $264.06 alleged to be a balance due on work done by De Polo. De Polo made improvements to the Arcade theatre and did other work. The total bill was $1,499.26, payments, including a book account owed by De Polo, amounting to $1,235.20 having been made.

P. Bufano has filed an affidavit of defense to the suit for $100 brought by Gastano DeBiasa. DeBiasa claimed to have given Bufano's clerk $100 to forward to Marco DeBiasa in Italy. Bufano denies this is true, saying he only gave $10, which was forwarded and later returned. Bufano now holds that amount.

WANTS BOARD OF TRADE

Mill Run, Up in the Mountains, Takes City Airs.

Mill Run is the latest town to get the Board of Trade fever. In the current issue of the Mill Run Advance, Editor Kooser makes a warm plea for the organization of a Board of Trade to boom Mill Run.

"The sidewalk question is not dead," he says, "but Mill Run wants more than sidewalks. It wants industries."

There is a campaign to get some sidewalks in Mill Run in order to avoid walking in the mud. Then the town would like to have an industry that would bring people to walk on the sidewalks.

The lament of the Advance is that Mill Run cannot keep its young men at home. As soon as they are old enough, it is Connellsville and other big cities for them.

WON'T GO TO SCHOOL.

West Side Parent Fined for Son's Non-Attendance.

Champ Miller of the West Side was fined by Squire W. P. Clark Saturday for violating the school law in not sending his 14-year-old son, Edward, to school. Miss Capitola Mason teacher of room No. 6 on the West Side, reported Edward's delinquency to Truant Officer J. W. Stouffer and the prosecution resulted.

Miller says he cannot make the boy go to school and threatens to send him away if he does not attend in the future.

PAWVA MEETING

Said to Have Been Called for Uniontown Wednesday.

The magnates of the Pennsylvania & West Virginia league are said to have been called to meet in Uniontown on Wednesday. Director A. A. Straub had not received a notice up to this morning. The proposed circuit for 1910 will be discussed at the session.

Tri-State Lines In Better Shape, All In Tonight

All the toll lines of the American Union system out of Connellsville are in working order now and by tonight the local phones will all be in service. A trolley wire which came in contact with the company's wires between here and Uniontown put the phones out of commission in both Connellsville and Uniontown and since that time the linemen of both offices have been working night and day to restore the service.

The situation was a serious one for Local Manager W. T. McCormick, who but recently assumed charge, but he proved equal to the occasion.

An Oil Wagon Badly Wrecked, Two Men Hurt

Special to The Courier.

NEYERSDALE, Jan. 10.—Yesterday a serious accident befell two well known residents of this place, Liveryman Elmer E. Klingaman and Charles Boyer, the local agent for the Atlantic Refining Company for this territory. With the two horses belonging to the company and two additional horses belonging to Mr. Klingaman the two men were making their usual trip to supply the country stores with oil. The roads throughout this entire community are a plot of ice, rendering it extremely dangerous for driving and hauling. Somewhere near Deal postoffice the large wagon, which, with its supply of oil weighs nearly four tons, slid over an embankment and the two men were pitched from the seat and thrown heavily to the frozen and icy ground.

Klingaman, who had his shoulder broken, and otherwise injured, was the first to recover his senses and saw Boyer lying a short distance away motionless. Making his way as best he could to where he lay he tried to arouse him. Drenching his face with snow he soon recovered from his unconsciousness and but for a few severe and painful bruises and contusions he was found otherwise uninjured. Parties living nearby brought the unfortunate men to this place where their injuries were attended to. The horses were uninjured, though the wagon was badly wrecked.

Sugar Trust Grafters to Pen for Year

United Press Telegram.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—In the United States Circuit Court today Judge Martin sentenced Thomas Kehoe, Patrick J. Hennessy, John Boyle and Edward Coyle, former checkers at the Williamsburg docks of the sugar trust, convicted of manipulating springs to defraud the government of duties by false weights, to one year in Blackwell's Island penitentiary. Oliver Spitzer, convicted with the others, will be sentenced in February. He is now in the hospital recovering from a surgical operation performed yesterday.

Judge Martin scored the prisoners for failing to take advantage of the hint that if they made a full breast of the matter they might have been shown leniency. He said if they had confessed he would have suspended sentence.

In view of the fact that they challenged the truth by sticking to their original stories, the evidence showing they were guilty, he could not do otherwise than impose a jail sentence. It is expected the stories will be appealed.

ANNUAL REPORT

Of Transportation Department of West Penn Being Prepared.

Superintendent of Transportation J. W. Brown of the West Penn is busily engaged in making up the annual report of the transportation department for 1909. This will take several days and requires compiling a maze of figures.

Miss Josephine Beckett of Uniontown is assisting in this work. Miss Beckett was for several years assistant to former Division Superintendent C. E. Fife and is familiar with the work.

STATE TREASURERE-LECT STOBER DEAD.

Found in His Bed This Morning by Members of His Family—Was to Have Taken Office First Monday of May—Governor Will Appoint Successor.

United Press Telegram.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 10.—State Treasurer-elect J. L. Stober was found dead in bed at his home at Schoeneck this morning. He had apparently been in good health up to a few hours before he died.

Mr. Stober was elected to the position of State Treasurer at the last general election and would have taken the oath of office, to serve three years, on the first Monday of next May.

The vacancy will now be filled by Governor Stuart. Had the legislature been in session, the Governor would have made the nomination and sent it to the State Senate for its confirmation. Had Mr. Stober's death come within three months of a general election, the election of his successor would have gone over until the following year. As it is, the Governor will name Mr. Stober's successor, and an election to fill the vacancy will be held next November.

Mr. Stober was 68 years old. When he retired last night he was apparently in good health. When called this morning he failed to respond. He was to have taken office on May 2. He was born in Clay township January 20, 1842 and served several terms as Republican State committeeman. He was elected to the Legislature in 1874 and re-elected in 1876, serving until 1878. He was in the State Senate from 1890 until 1906.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 10.—The death of Treasurer-elect Stober will necessitate the election of a State Treasurer at the general election next November. In addition to the convention nominating candidates for Governor and other offices next summer, it will also nominate a man for Treasurer.

The question arises whether Treasurer Sheatz shall continue in office until November, or his successor shall be appointed by the Governor. The Governor will doubtless be governed by the opinion of Attorney General Todd whether he will be authorized to appoint a temporary treasurer to serve from May until November. The Governor, Treasurer Sheatz and other officials expressed great regret over the death of Mr. Stober this morning.

To Enlarge Greenwood Car Barns

Improvements that will double the capacity of the Greenwood shops and car barns of the West Penn Railways Company are being planned and will be executed in the near future in order to take care of the additional cars that will run out of Connellsville when the Iron Bridge crews are transferred to this place. The company is also looking into the future, when the additional line to Uniontown, by way of Lafeanring No. 3 and the Olivers, is to be built.

At present 16 crews run out of Connellsville and this number will be increased to 26 when the Iron Bridge crews are transferred on February 16. Besides this, all the repairs on the system are made at Greenwood. The Iron Bridge barns will be used, after the crews are transferred for storing most of the cars which are not in use. The summer cars will be kept there in winter and closed cars in summer. The improvements will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000. About 150 feet of additional trackage will be laid. The improvements are to be made under the general direction of Master Mechanic Daniel Durie.

MILLIONAIRE'S SON DIES IN CHICAGO RESORT

James H. Moore Expires Following a Night of Carousal—Went West to Reform.

United Press Telegram.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Startling evidence is expected to result from a general raid on the levee district today for witnesses at the inquest over the body of Nathaniel Ford Moore, son of James Hobart Moore, the railroad magnate, who was found dead in bed in a resort last night. There were no marks of violence on his body.

Moore was known to have been a great spender in both New York and Chicago. His wife is prostrated. The body was discovered by an inmate of the house. Efforts were made to suppress details of his death, said to have followed an expensive dinner.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—When Nathaniel F. Moore left New York he said he was going west to learn railroading and help his father. He was the most picturesque spender along Broadway. His marriage to Helen Fargo followed a romantic automobile courtship. They toured Europe in an auto, with an aunt for a chaperone, and were married on their return.

In February, 1907, he gave a dinner at Rector's which cost $20,000. Necklaces set with pearls costing thousands, and diamond studded cuff buttons were given as favors.

RILEY ARRAIGNED.

Charged With Theft of Official Documents From District Attorney.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Thomas Riley, former employe of the Sugar Trust and now special investigator for the Interstate Commerce Commission, was arraigned today on a charge of having "unlawfully taken and published" the famous Wickersham letter and other documents from the desk of District Attorney Wise.

Riley pleaded not guilty and was held under $2,000 bail.

Lad Falls Out of Sleigh.

Claudy Means of Moyer, aged 6 years, fell out of a sleigh Saturday night and sustained an ugly cut on his right cheek. He was removed to the Cottage State hospital where four stitches were put in the cut. He later returned to his home.

Had Tonsils Removed.

Emerson W. Maxwell, aged 5 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxwell of Uniontown had his tonsils removed yesterday at the Cottage State Hospital. The operation was performed by Dr. W. J. Bailey.

JOSEPH SOISSON 81 YEARS OLD.

Birthday Anniversary Was Quietly Celebrated on Sunday.

HAD A FAMILY DINNER

Mr. Soisson Came to Connellsville When a Young Man and Was Pioneer in Coke Oven Brick Manufacture.

Joseph Soisson, one of the most prominent retired business men of Connellsville, quietly celebrated his 81st birthday anniversary yesterday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stader on East Main street. All his children with the exception of Mrs. John Gilligan of Latrobe, who is ill, were present and spent a most delightful day with their aged parents. A feature of the gathering was an elegantly appointed 1 o'clock turkey dinner.

Decorations suggestive of the yuletide season prevailed in all the appointments. With its dainty linen and handsome floral decorations the large table at which covers were laid for 20 presented a very pretty scene. In the center of the table was a large birthday cake bearing 81 lighted candles significant of the age of this honor guest. At one end of the table was a tall cut glass vase of red, pink and white carnations interspersed with asparagus while at the other end was a Santa Claus surrounded by a number of smaller ones. The place cards were pretty hand-painted affairs. The children present were Mrs. J. D. Madigan, William F., Vincent, Robert, Charles, Lee, Joseph Soisson and Mrs. J. L. Stader. Other members of the family present were J. D. Madigan and J. L. Stader, sons-in-law, Mrs. Emma Soisson, a daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Elizabeth Schloser, a sister.

In honor of the happy occasion Mr. Soisson was presented with a very fine overcoat by his children. Mr. Soisson was born in France and at the age of 14 years he came to this country and settled at Hollidaysburg where he was married to Miss Caroline Filcor who is now past 75 years of age. They later came to Connellsville and Mr. Soisson opened a brick works near Dawson. He now owns five brick plants. He is President of the Yough Bank and a director in the Citizens National Bank. Despite his old age he is able to attend the bank meetings and still looks after his other business interests.

Boy Students Driven Out By Bad Fire

United Press Telegram.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Jan. 10.—Four hundred boy students, 20 servants and a dozen instructors were driven from their beds into snow drifts this morning when the main building of the New York Military Academy in Cornwall, near here, was destroyed by fire. The loss will reach $200,000.

Fatalities were prevented by military discipline, the boys forming in line as they left their beds and marching from the building. Many were overcome by smoke and carried out by comrades. Fire started in the kitchen on the ground store.

Died at Wedding Celebration.

In the midst of the Hungarian Christmas festivities at Star Junction Sunday morning, Bertilar Schone, aged 28, collapsed and died before the arrival of medical assistance. Schone had taken an important part in the celebration and had been drinking heavily.

Church Debt Is Cut Down Just $6,000

Sunday, January 9 at 11 o'clock the annual congregational meeting of the German Lutheran St. John's Church was held. The pastor's annual message to the congregation was read. Rev. Dietz is now five years in charge of this congregation. Five years ago the church debt was $11,000. Today it was only $5,000. The pastor's salary for this year was raised to $960.

The newly elected Church Council members are: The pastor, Rev. Dietz, Fred Klobd, William Weltz, William Brock, Joseph Russnack, Gustave Raupack, John Lerch, Fred Ottenberg, Martin Gerke, Ferd Lascinski. Membership of the congregation is over 200 families scattered over the whole coke region. Last year $2,100 was raised.

PINCHOT'S STATEMENT IS BEING PREPARED

At Home Mapping Out Plan to Vindicate His Position in Controversy With Taft.

United Press Telegram.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Gifford Pinchot is spending the day at home mapping out a plan to vindicate his position in the controversy with President Taft. He is preparing a statement to be issued to the public.

The delay in completing this has been caused by frequent interruptions by visitors who have called to express sympathy. Telegrams overflow the tables and are piled on the floors.

MR. CHASE RECONSIDERS

And Will Serve as Superintendent of Baptist Sunday School.

As the result of a petition presented him yesterday morning F. L. Chase has reconsidered his refusal to serve another year as superintendent of the First Baptist Church.

Owing to the excellent work done by Mr. Chase last year in the way of building up the Sunday School the petition was circulated among the Sunday school and when presented to Mr. Chase it was unanimously signed. Mr. Chase announced later that he would serve another year.

TOOK POSSESSION.

Washington, Pa., Men Get Old Automobile Works.

Representatives of the Washington, Pa., men who recently closed a deal with Owen Murphy for the old automobile works at South Connellsville today took possession of the plant.

Their plans for the operation of the plant will be announced soon. Brake shoes are to be manufactured.

HURT IN MINE.

Leisenring No. 3 Miner Brought to Cottage Hospital.

Carl Lotsnok, of Leisenring No. 3, was removed to the Cottage State hospital this morning suffering from an injury sustained this morning as the result of an accident with which he met in the mines of the H. C. Frick Coke Company at Leisenring No. 3.

At noon the physicians had not announced the nature of his injury.

Operated on at Fairmont.

Marriage Bans Published.

Bans were published yesterday morning in the Immaculate Conception Church for the marriage of Miss Clara Tippman and Charles Finn, a well known couple of Connellsville.

MT. PLEASANT IS NOT IN CLASS WITH GREATER CONNELLSVILLE.

Chamber of Commerce Tells Why It Is Unfair To Compare Cost of Living of Two Towns.

New Recruits Wanted for Company D

A campaign for recruits to Company D will be inaugurated in the near future by Captain Harry Dunn in order to bring the company up to the standard required by the Dick militia bill. Under the new law the companies can be recruited to a limit of 68 men, while, with the permission of the Adjutant General, this number may be increased to 150. Captain Dunn will go after the highest number.

Company D now has an enlistment of 60 and Captain Dunn has created more interest in military affairs in the company than has existed since the Spanish-American war. He anticipates little difficulty in securing new recruits of a high standard.

Frick Wages Are Advanced January 16

As had been forecasted in The Courier and Pittsburg trade papers announcement was made today of an advance in wages by the H. C. Frick Coke Company effective on January 16. Since the middle of last December announcement of a wage advance has been expected weekly in the coke region. The new rate will be met by all of the independent operators in the Connellsville and Lower Connellsville regions. The new wage scale posted today is as follows:

CERTIFICATES ARE ISSUED TO EIGHT BOYS.

By Superintendent Deffenbaugh in Accordance With the New Minor Law.

Borough Superintendent W. S. Deffenbaugh has issued eight employment certificates since the new law went into effect January 1. He is anxious to know of others between the ages of 14 and 16 years who are required to have these certificates before they can be employed.

Over in Charlerol 107 certificates have been issued and from other towns the number is larger than Connellsville. It is believed that Connellsville has such a good school system that there is no deafening clamor for the certificates.

POLICE SHIFT BEATS.

New Details Go On at Night and In Daylight.

The police officers shifted beats Sunday morning and Officer James Francis is now doing duty as turnkey at the bastile and preserving order on Brimstone Corner during the daytime.

Francis has been on night duty for several months past. He is just recovering from a severe cold which kept him off duty several days.

Wants to Be Annexed.

East Liberty, an old suburb adjoining Vanderbilt, will shortly make application to be annexed to the borough of Vanderbilt, according to report.

WE HAVE MORE ADVANTAGES

Might Just as Well Argue That Pennsville is a Cheaper Place to Live Than Mt. Pleasant, He Says—Order Not Apt to Be Revoked.

The Connellsville Chamber of Commerce is keenly interested in the transfer of the Iron Bridge crews to Connellsville, and the arguments put forth by the Mt. Pleasant citizens. The question at issue is whether Mt. Pleasant is a cheaper place to live than Connellsville. A statement issued today from the Chamber of Commerce says that it is unfair to compare Connellsville with Mt. Pleasant, and that if rents are higher here, which is not generally admitted, the advantages offered by Connellsville are ample to offset any moderate increase in living expenses that might exist.

It is expected that a conference will be held by the West Penn officials over the question whether the crews shall be removed, but on good authority it is understood that there is little chance that the order will be rescinded. The statement of the Chamber of Commerce is as follows:

"If Mt. Pleasant wishes to draw a comparison between herself and some other community, we would suggest that she select a town in her own class and of her own size and importance, for it is patent that Mt. Pleasant is not in Connellsville's class.

"It would be just as reasonable for us to megaphone to the world that a dwelling on the main street of Connellsville will rent for $30 per month, and that the same dwelling, if on the main street of New York, would cost a tenant double that amount. But no true comparison can be made between Connellsville and New York, for they are not in the same class.

"If cheap rent is the only desirable thing left in the world, a tiny settlement on Chestnut Ridge might cast up to Mt. Pleasant, with just as much reason as Mt. Pleasant has to Connellsville, that desirable homes can be secured on the Ridge at even less than Mt. Pleasant's vaunted $9.50 houses; but it is doubtful if inhabitants of Mt. Pleasant would be drawn away from their own town to live on Chestnut Ridge for that reason.

"Mt. Pleasant must remember that Greater Connellsville is in reality a young city; and, with its recent expansion, has placed itself in a different class. Metropolitan advantages can now be enjoyed in Connellsville, with its eight miles of paved streets, 22 miles of modern sewage, 13 hotels, 7 banks, 5 theatres, public library, hospital, state armory, 3 express companies, 2 telegraph and telephone companies, 3 great railroads, one railway company, free mail delivery, superior electric lighting system, and splendid common and high schools.

"These conditions have been brought about by progressiveness on the part of Connellsville's citizens; they have cost money, and consequently real estate values have advanced. But they have only advanced in proportion and today roomy, comfortable houses, well lighted and heated, with modern conveniences, can be secured on Connellsville's most desirable residence streets, at a most reasonable rent.

"As to the cost of commodities, there can be no argument that Connellsville supplies its citizens with the best the market affords at as least as low a cost as any of its immediate neighbors, and considerably cheaper than some others.

"With its already large number of manufacturing concerns, and the bright prospects it has of securing still greater ones, Connellsville is the Mecca towards which the discerning individual will turn his steps, well knowing that steady employment throughout the year, at good wages, will enable him to pay a slight increase in his house rent, if necessary, and still be further advanced in the end, than to remain in a community which cannot offer him the same inducements."

NEW USE FOR ELECTRIC FANS.

They Will Help Heat a Building as Well as Keep it Cool.

The Electric Fan should not be stored away. Its services are as essential in winter as in summer. It can be used to advantage by placing it in the intake of a hot air furnace to force the circulation of hot air to distant rooms and to heat rooms quickly.

The breeze from an electric fan blowing through a radiator circulates the heated air and gives a more even distribution of heat and assists materially in quickly heating large rooms and halls.

The circulation of heat by the use of the electric fan saves a large percentage of fuel and is well worth trying.

WORKING TOGETHER

For Extension of Lake Erie Into West Virginia.

WASHINGTON, D C Jan 10—Plans of the Lake Erie railroad for extension from Fayette county into West Virginia are revealed through bills introduced into the House of Representatives by Congressmen A F Cooper of Uniontown, and George C Sturgiss of Morgantown One bill calls for the building of a bridge across the Monongahela from a point on the east bank of the river in Greene county near the mouth of Dunkard creek The other provides for the building of a bridge by the Union Railroad & Dock Company across the same river at Morgantown

The latter bridge will connect the Buchanan & Northern with the Morgantown & Kingwood railroad, the Elkins road, which ends at Rowlesburg and which is planned to be extended to a connection with the West Virginia at Parsons

The Lake Erie is to be extended south from its present terminus to the State line There it will be joined by the Buckhannon & Northern and this road will run to Morgantown, where it will connect with the Morgantown & Kingwood South of Morgantown the Lake Erie will run along the river until it meets the Western Maryland at Belington, W. Va.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Black Duck, Minn.—"About a year ago I wrote you that I was sick and could not do any of my housework. My sickness was called Retrodexion When I would sit down I felt as if I could not get up. I took Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and did just as you told me and now I am perfectly cured, and have a big baby boy"—Mrs. ANNA ANDERSON, Box 19, Black Duck, Minn.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills and creates radiant, buoyant female health If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

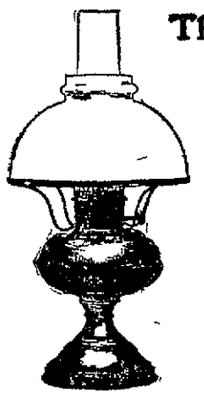
For Evening Hours The Rayo Lamp



Some of the sweetest hours of home-life are passed under the gentle, kindly light of the evening lamp

If it be the Rayo Lamp, the light contributes an added charm—makes reading and sewing easy.

There are no aching eyes after reading or sewing under the rays of the Rayo Lamp

The Rayo Lamp diffuses a steady white light. It is the least trying of any artificial light. Made of brass throughout—nickel plated—improved central draught burner

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but you cannot get a better lamp at any price

Once a Rayo user, always one

CONFLUENCE, Jan. 10.—(Special.) The home of Mr and Mrs. C. G. Masters was the scene of a very pretty wedding Saturday when their daughter Mary Edyth became the bride of Andrew Crichton at high noon. Rev. A. K. Travis, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, performed the ceremoney The ring service was used. Only immediate relatives of both parties were present. After the ceremony a handsomely appointed wedding dinner was served. The bride presented each guest with a hand-painted card with her picture on it in rich crimson.

They left on train No. 15 Saturday afternoon for a wedding trip through Colorado and California after which they will be at home to their friends in Johnstown, where Mr. Crichton is employed as mining engineer and surveyor.

A RECORD PRICE PAID FOR THE CLAIRTON COAL

H. C. Frick Coke Company Gets Over 2,000 Acres For More Than $2,000,000 Cash.

UNIONTOWN, Jan. 10.—Through deeds filed in the recorder's office here it developed Saturday that the Clairton Steel Company has sold to the H C Frick Coke Company 2,644 acres of coking coal land and 296 acres of surface land in Luzerne township, Fayette county, for $2,284,448 cash. This is the largest cash transaction ever made in Fayette county coal, and the price is said to be the highest per acre ever paid for such a large tract of Connellsville coking coal.

While the deed is dated December 31, 1909, the deal has been kept secret, and even those close to the Frick company did not know that negotiations were pending until Saturday, when it leaked out that deeds had been recorded. The transaction caused considerable comment in coal and iron and steel circles, and particularly among the independent producers. It means that the H. C. Frick Coke Company, which supplies the coke for the United States Steel Corporation plants has provided for the future in this line for many years

The Frick company paid $850 per acre for the coal and $125 per acre for the surface. Those who are informed on such matters say that in the course of a few years even this record price for a large tract will seem small The coal is said to be of an exceedingly good quality, and experts frequently have commented on the quality of the big tract for making coke.

The property adjoins the coal lands of the Isabella-Connellsville Coke Company, Republic-Connellsville Coke Company and Tower Hill Connellsville Coke Company. The tract has nearly a mile of frontage on the Monongahela river, and both rear and front are traversed by railroad lines. The Isabella-Connellsville and Tower Hill-Connellsville holdings and much of the surrounding properties are owned by J. V. Thompson of Uniontown, and associates.

Just what the Frick company intends to do in the way of developing the immense tract has not been divulged, although it is generally believed here that big coking plants will be built in the near future In some quarters it is intimated that the company will not develop the newly acquired holdings until the present mines are worked out.

President Thomas Lynch, who is regarded as one of the best informed coke men in the country, and a number of the higher officials of the H C. Frick company recently made a general inspection of the coking coal lands in this section, as well as the company's plants now in operation, but no mention was made then that the company was even considering a purchase. Whether the recent visit of President Lynch and party will have anything to do with the development of the large tract could not be learned here.

During the last eight months a number of large coking coal deals have been consummated in this section, but none attracted so much attention as the present one. The fact that the Frick company is adding to its present holdings in Fayette county and is providing for an ample supply of coke in future years is being noted among speculators, as well as among the large independent steel manufacturers

There is a car shortage in the Connellsville coke fields and difficulty is being experienced in finding enough men to man the plants Operations now in the Connellsville region compare favorably with other prosperous years. Prices are being slightly advanced and the outlook for the future is bright.

Spurious Nickels Out.

From reports from various parts of the country, counterfeit nickels and half dollars are in circulation in Western Pennsylvania. The dates are 1908 and 1909, and the money is an excellent imitation, the only means of detection in most cases being the weight

IMPROVED EXPRESS FOR MT. PLEASANT

Pennsy to Transfer Goods For Mt. Pleasant at Tarr Where Trolley Will Take Burden.

MT. PLEASANT, Jan' 10.—Express and baggage service by trolley for Mt. Pleasant is the gist of a rumor which is being hopefully credited by the residents of that town At present Mt. Pleasant receives express matter twice a day. Under the new plan if the rumor is founded Mt. Pleasant will have a baggage and express service equal to that of any town on the Southwest branch of the Pennsylvania. Officials of the West Penn Electric lines have been conferring with the Pennsylvania railroad men and the result of their conference will likely be the improved express service for Mt. Pleasant, since under the State law it is permissible for trolley lines to haul express matter as well as baggage.

According to the report, the West Penn Street Railways Company will run their lines at Tarrs up to the P R R. siding at the station and there transfer baggage and express matter by trolley to Mt Pleasant. Cars on the short link between Tarrs and Mt Pleasant run every half hour. Thus the residents of the last named town will be able to receive express consignments just 30 minutes after schedule train time on the branch Business men of Mt Pleasant are highly optimistic about the new outlook for improved service.

COKE PLANT SOLD.

E. D. Fulton Gets $75,000 For Gray's Landing Plant.

By a deal consummated Saturday E. D Fulton disposed of his plant of the Jacobs Creek Coal & Coke Company at Gray's Landing to William Beal for a consideration of about $75,000. The purchaser, who has been superintendent of the plant for some time, will take full charge at once The plant consists of 44 ovens with a surface of 120 acres.

Mr. Beal leased the plant a short time ago and had been operating it. The coal which is of the five-foot Sewickley vein is considered good.

GLASS COMPANY SELLS

Valuable Property at Point Marion to Jeannette Company.

The Jeannette Glass Company, limited, of Point Marion, has sold to the Jeannette Window Glass Company, 34 acres of coal land in Dunkard township Greene county for $10,246, under date of December 31, 1909, and also 12 acres of land and 11 adjoining lots in Springhill township, Fayette county, the price for the Fayette property being $109,262 07 Deeds for both transfers were recorded Saturday.

THE ELECTRIC SIGN ORDINANCE.

The new electric sign ordinance requires that no sign shall contain less than twenty-four lights, and some owners of signs are exercised lest they will be compelled to light up or 'light out.

The borough authorities are well within their duties and their rights when they demand that all signs shall be made safe, but such electrical signs as have been erected under former ordinances and regulations may not have their requirements added to in any manner not relating to public safety without the consent of the owners.

The requirement as to the number of lights electrical signs must contain is not, we assume, intended to be enforced against signs already existing. Such an enforcement would be in the nature of an expost facto law and would not be constitutional. Besides the candle-power of the lights are not specified.

The ordinance will probably be found to reasonable and fair, wise and just, in all its provisions.

THE SUITORS OF THE WESTERN MARYLAND.

The report that the Baltimore & Ohio is flirting with the Western Maryland is not impossible, but it is improbable that the new suitor will make a serious impression. The Pittsburg & Lake Erie offers superior inducements and is suspected of being a more ardent if not a more experienced lover.

We see no reason to change the original Western Maryland trans-Allegheny map which brought the Western Maryland over the mountains on a two per centum maximum grade down the left bank of the Yough river into the West Side there to connect with the finely-built Pittsburg & Lake Erie fit for through traffic anywhere. Neither do we see any reason to doubt the rumor that the Western Maryland may have West Side shops.

Incidentally it looks as if things were coming our way.

Congressman Cooper is about to inaugurate some reforms in the Government Printing Office at Washington. When he gets through with that job he ought to come home and reform some of the one-horse printing offices of Fayette county. Their financial management may be good, but their editorial form is bad. They need more consideration and courtesy, which is to say more common sense and better political judgment.

The editor of the Bingville Banner is reported to be a native of Washington county. His work has a Catfish flavor since we come to think about it.

The passing of Pinchot before the public investigation of his charges was unfortunate but inevitable under the circumstances. He forgot the respect due to properly constituted authority But the investigation should and no doubt will proceed just the same. In the meantime, many politicians are laying their ears to the ground in the hope of getting a wireless from the Jungle Country.

The West Side promises to have an extensive underground system, but it will not be thrown open to the public at present.

Examine the fires carefully before going to bed in the home or locking up the store in the evening.

All dogs who bite are not mad, but if they are so vicious as to attack unoffending people they ought to be killed on the general principle that they are dangerous.

The announcement that the H. C. Frick Coke Company would advance wages came a little later than the newspapers predicted, but it got here just the same.

Mount Pleasant is getting some express results from its kicking. When intelligently directed, kicking brings good results, especially if accompanied with proper diplomacy. The kicker must known when to stop as well as when to begin. Some belligerent people don't know the starting or the stopping points, and so they never get anywhere but left.

The activity in coal lands is varied occasionally by the sale of a coke plant.

There won't be any half-Nelson hold in the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation. It will be the real Battling Nelson of Minnesota who will wrestle with it.

The Republican insurgents have put themselves outside the pale of the party in Congress, but the organization should try persuasion before the Big Stick.

There is in the minds of tenants no room for argument about rents in Connellsville and Mount Pleasant. They are all too high.

The Connellsville High School has attained to a degree of efficiency which permits its graduates to enter Vassar College To be in the Vassar class is something to be proud of. Our High School is evidently gone up higher than it ever was before, and it is still climbing

DAUGHTERS AND SONS

Of the War of 1812 Who Live in Fayette County.

UNIONTOWN, Jan. 10.—No less than 14 real Sons and Daughters of the War of 1812 are living in Uniontown and vicinity, which shows that after all the United States is not such an old country when only one generation takes people back to the veterans of the second war with England.

Persons living in this community whose fathers served in the War of 1812 are Mrs. Drusilla Titlow, Mrs. Augusta Allen Mrs. Chas. C. Teed, Jacob Allamon, Jacob Gallagher, Harvey C. Jeffries, Mrs. Susan Coburn, Mrs. Julia Bierer, Mrs. Cecelia Wood, Mrs. Amanda Coughanour, Mrs. Alice Eberhart, Mrs. Elizabeth Nycum, Mrs. Mray McCray and Mrs. B. F. Elliott.

Henry H. Beeson, father of Mrs. Titlow and Mrs. Allen, was a private in Capt. Thomas Collins' company from Uniontown in 1812. His mother was a Quaker and opposed to war, but when Henry started for the front she told him, "Henry, if thee be shot, let it not be in the back."

Sergeant John Gallagher, father of Jacob Gallagher, served throughout the war and was so much impressed with what the war had accomplished that he went back to view the battle ground and when Gen. Winfield Scott passed through Uniontown Sergeant Gallagher was one of the escorts.

Thomas Whalen, another veteran, was the father of Mrs. Julia Bierer, Mrs. Cecelia Wood and Mrs. Amanda Coughanour of Uniontown and Mrs. Alice Eberhart of Allegheny county.

Nathan Jeffries, who served during the last few months of the war of 1812, was the father of Harvey S. Jeffries and Mrs. Susan Coburn of South Union township.

Thomas Thompson who was also in the company which went out from Uniontown, was the father of Mrs. Elizabeth Nycum of Morgantown street.

Capt. John McClean, who commanded the company from Uniontown, was the father of Mrs. Mary McCray of North Union and Mrs. B. F. Elliott of Uniontown

Jacob Allamon, another veteran, was the father of Mrs. Charles C. Teed of Uniontown and Jacob Allamon of New Salem. Mr. Allamon spent most of his life at New Salem He was born in Winchester, Va., and ran away from home and walked over the mountains to Uniontown where he learned the trade of wagonmaker, working in the rear of the old "Natty" Brownfield property.

Mr. Allamon was born March 27, 1784, and died September 18, 1872. His first wife was Elizabeth French, who was born May 9, 1879, and died August 12, 1826. They were married April 11, 1805, and were the parents of 12 children.

The second wife of Mr. Allamon was Mary Ann Fry, who was born October 11, 1817, and died January 8, 1891. Four of the children of the first union were older than their stepmother, the second wife of Mr. Allamon, who was the mother of Mrs. Teed and the present Jacob Allamon of New Salem and of Johnson Allamon of Canton, Ill. Mr. Allamon and Miss Fry were married March 12, 1845.

The second Mrs. Allamon was born in Virginia and when she was a young girl a fortune teller told her that she would come over the mountains to Pennsylvania and marry an old widower. Miss Fry was amused at the prediction at the time, but it proved true later. The Allamons lived in a little log house which still stands in New Salem and is near the present home of Dr. J. D. Cox. It is now occupied by Jacob Allamon.

AFTER THE B. & O.

Governor Glasscock Takes a Hand in Investigation.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 10.—The matter of the alleged domination of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company by the Pennsylvania system, and the charge that the former road is not properly equipped to take care of the large amount of freight offered it by shippers in this State has been called to the attention of Gov. Glasscock, who has started an investigation Speaking of the matter today the governor said the State had power to regulate railroads and called attention to a bill before the recent legislature providing for a public service commission.

Ten days ago a delegation of coal operators and the other shippers of freight dependent upon the Baltimore & Ohio called upon Congressman Hubbard and Senator Scott at Wheeling and asked for an investigation by Congress. Later a meeting of shippers was held at Fairmont where an organization was formed. Another meeting will be held at Clarksburg Tuesday and Gov. Glasscock will attend.

Dr. Levy Called to London.

Rubbers! Rubbers!

There is nothing that so prolongs the life of a pair of shoes and keeps them looking well as good rubber protection. Then, think of the comfort. Every man, woman or child, whether they believe or not, should have rubbers. No prudent woman should think of going out during this season of bad walking without protecting her feet with a good pair of rubbers.

OUR RUBBERS FIT.

We have the different styles, different heels and different heights; can fit any kind of a shoe—both men and women. We carry only first quality and they are cheapest in the end.

ALL KINDS OF PROTECTION.

Felt Boots, single and double buckles, Arctics, one and four buckles, Lumbermen Socks, Lace Felts, all Felt Shoes and most every kind you can think of.

It Pays Men

In snowy cold weather to have shoes that protect the feet properly. Men who are exposed to all knids of weather while at work can have no better protection than a pair of our High Top Shoes. The shoes are made right and will stand any kind of rough service. The leathers in both uppers and soles is treated with a viscol oil dressing that makes the shoes waterproof. The shoes are built strong and heavy, but there is no trouble to wear them—they fit as nice as a dress shoe. We have them in black and tan in 10, 12, 14 and 15 inch tops. The best selection of high grade top shoes to be had in the county.

They come at $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00, $5.50, $7.00 and $9.00. Have a look at them.

MANY SCOTTDALE MEN ON PROGRAM.

They Will Take Active Part In Coming Farmers' Institute

THE LATTER PART OF MONTH

Good Roads Movement Will Be Taken Up—East Huntingdon Has Petitioned For a Vote on Cash Road Tax in February.

SCOTTDALE, Jan. 10.—Farmers of this community meet at the Kromer House at 7 o'clock this evening to take up the work of completing the program for the coming institute, and expect a good attendance.

Edward Workman is the local chairman and W. C. Myers the secretary, and both say that great interest is being manifested in the event, which will take place in the Peterson Business College hall the latter part of the month, January 24 and 25. The farmers of this locality have been very active in institute work, and have had several successful ones in the past, a greater attendance being shown at Scottdale than at all the other similar meetings in the county. They have also taken up the good roads movement in the Grange and among the farmers generally, and those in East Huntingdon township last week circulated a petition to file with the County Commissioners to have the question of a cash road tax submitted to the voters of the township at the February election. East Huntingdon township has been behind in this matter but it will not be so long if the singers of the petition are indicative of the general attitude of the farmers toward this phase of taxation and their desire to secure State aid to better roads. At Greensburg and Mt. Pleasant there have been many miles of State road built but about Scottdale there seems an apathy, a lack of enterprise or influence toward improving the highways.

The coming institute will take up the road matter somewhat at least. One of the most interesting features of it will be the number of home speakers, who will be on the program. So many men have been successful in various agricultural lines about here that their fellows want them to tell of their success in the institute. This community ought to turn out just as good speakers as any, and it is through discovering local speakers that the State secures the men who travel for them speaking to the institutes. The most of them are farmers, gardners or orchardists who have been successful and can tell others how they have reached success. Many of the people about here have been equally successful and some on a larger scale than the farmers who visit them. So there is no reason why Scottdale should not turn out some institute speakers.

Taken to Hospital.

Miss Margaret Ferguson, daughter of former Burgess and Mrs. William Ferguson of Loucks avenue, was taken to Mercy hospital, Pittsburg on Saturday and was operated on yesterday for appendicitis. A message yesterday said that the girl came through the operation all right, and it was expected would get along nicely.

Confined to His Home.

Rev. Archibald Auld, pastor of the Jacobs Creek and Alverton Methodist Episcopal Churches, was absent from the services yesterday, being confined to his home on Chestnut street, with a bad case of tonsilitis. He attended the funeral of J. P. Love at Alverton and after officiating there was taken ill.

Was Y. M. C. A. Day.

Sunday was a Y. M. C. A. day in the churches and the work was given a forward push by vigorous speakers. At the Geyer opera house there was a large audience in the afternoon to hear the talk on the "Workingmen's Enemy."

Teachers Out in Force.

Nearly every teacher and many of the pupils of the Scottdale schools filled two West Penn cars and attended the matinee of "Rip Van Winkle" at the Soisson theatre Saturday afternoon. Washington Irving's story is used in the study course of the Scottdale schools.

Tonight's Attraction.

"A Girl of the Mountains" is the attraction at the Geyer opera house tonight, and comes with high recommendations.

Bad Man Rounded Up.

Harry N. Drennan, better known as "Dad," pleaded guilty to seven charges after his arrest by County Detective Alex McIlvin and Sergeant Paul D. Stout of the State police, Saturday at Brownsville. Drennan admitted that he had assaulted three men and one woman and had shot at two others in the past two months, but said that his actions had been the result of an overdose of joy juice.

NO LAGGING WITH INQUIRY.

Congress Making All Haste in Ballinger-Pinchot Affair.

NELSON MAY HEAD COMMITTEE

Nothing Interfering, Congressional Investigation Will Be Started This Week—Senate Committee Is Stated and House Members Will be Named.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Unless the insurgents in the house or senate put a stick in the spokes of the legislative wheels the inquiry into the Ballinger-Pinchot affair ought to be under way by the latter part of the week.

The Republican leaders are anxious to get the joint committee to work at the earliest possible moment in order that the submission of its report may not be delayed. It is realized that the whole affair is "loaded" and may possibly disclose some things that will make an issue in the coming congressional campaign.

Unless there is a change of program Senator Nelson of Minnesota, chairman of the senate committee on public lands, will be appointed chairman of the joint committee on inquiry. The administration is said to have indicated a wish that Senator Root be assigned to the committee. The other senate members in all probability will be Senators Sutherland of Utah and Flint of California (Republicans) and Paynter of Kentucky and Hughes of Colorado (Democrats).

SENATOR NELSON,
Will Probably Head Committee Investigating Ballinger-Pinchot Affair.

House Committee Named Tomorrow.

Speaker Cannon and his lieutenants have informed the senate leaders that they have no desire to overturn the edict of the house as expressed in the Norris amendment, which took from the speaker the power to name the house end of the committee. This does not mean that the organization will stand aside and let the insurgents name the members who are to represent the house on the committee that is to make the inquiry. That question will be settled in a party caucus to be held tomorrow.

Organization Republicans insist that had it not been for the large number of absentees from the house on Friday the Norris amendment would have been beaten. Inquiry has shown, however, that there were many regulars in the capitol on Friday who refused to enter the house when the time came to vote on the Norris amendment.

EXPLAINS ATTITUDE.

Congressional Committee of Republicans Opposed to Insurgents.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The Republican congressional campaign committee has issued a statement in response to the allegation that it was trying to prevent the nomination of insurgent Republican congressmen.

According to the committee's explanation it is opposed to the insurgent movement in the interest of party solidarity and good legislation and will seek to bring about the nomination and election to congress of Republicans who are regular. The concluding paragraph of the statement contains this exposition of the committee's attitude: "The Republican congressional committee makes no issue with any individual insurgent, but it will oppose to the full extent of its power the principle of insurgency and will advocate the nomination and election of regular and loyal Republicans.

"It concedes the right and privilege of individual opposition and its expressions, but maintains, with the president, that there must be party solidarity if the best in legislation and administration is to be attained."

Take Cold Dip In Surf.

Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 10.—Plucky bathers who essayed a dip in the ocean furnished fur-clad promenaders with material for shivers of sympathy. Two men and a woman made up the party, who appeared to be satisfied with a single plunge and then made a record dash for the protection of the bathhouses.

CHURCH SEEKS TO OUST DR. ROBERTS FROM MANY OFFICES.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 10.—Opponents of the Rev. Dr. William Henry Roberts of Philadelphia, stated clerk and treasurer of the Presbyterian General Assembly, who is styled by them "the Pope of the Presbyterian Church," have come out in the open with a demand that he resign his place as treasurer as well as many of the other posts he holds in the church. In addition to the two high offices Dr. Roberts holds nearly 60 other places of trust in the General Assembly. The Pittsburg Presbytery is almost unanimous in indorsing the attack, which was started by the Blairsville Presbytery. His opponents assert that no other churchman in the world ever held so many offices as Dr. Roberts and point out incidentally that many of them pay good salaries.

DETERMINED STAND.

Indiana Coal Mine Owners Will Resist Any Wage Odvance.

Indianapolis, Jan. 10.—Members of the Indiana Coal Operators' association have been holding conferences for a week past and also corresponding with operators of other states and it is practically agreed that there shall be a determined front presented to the demand for an increased wage scale which the miners' convention will present next week.

The operators, owing to the inability of the railroads to transport the coal already mined, have a large supply on hand and if this continues until February and there is a sudden breaking up of the cold weather they say they will have not only to meet a lower price but will have enough mined coal on hand to run them far into the season of 1910.

There is hardly a local in the northwest that has not instructed its representative in the coming convention to demand an increase in the mining scale and practically all the delegates will assemble here next week bound by their locals to stand out for higher wages.

FRISCO CHANGES MAYORS

P. M. McCarthy Takes Office; Announces His Policy.

San Francisco, Jan. 10.—P. M. McCarthy, head of the labor unions in this city, has assumed the office of mayor. He ignored the usual handshake with the retiring mayor.

In his address he bitterly scored the old administration for hypocrisy and graft and accused the mayor as well as the supervisors of winking at overcharges. He declared that San Francisco was a pleasure resort for the entire coast and he proposed that visitors should enjoy themselves in any reputable way without hindrance. He said the Chinese should not be molested in their quarters, which means that the ordinances against Oriental gambling and opium smoking will be quashed.

HOKE SMITH TO AID MORSE

Ex-Governor of Georgia Will Fight For Banker's Freedom.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 10.—Former Governor Hoke Smith held a long conference with Charles W. Morse at the federal prison after which it was announced that the ex-governor had been retained to aid in the fight which is to be made to restore Morse to freedom.

What the next step will be has not been indicated, but it is believed that the retention of ex-Governor Smith means that the next fight will be made in the federal courts in Georgia. There is talk that a writ of habeas corpus may be sued out.

BRYAN SPEAKS AT PANAMA

Expresses Satisfaction at Progress of Canal Work.

Panama, Jan. 10.—William J. Bryan will sail for Peru and Chili tomorrow, visiting Bolivia en route. He will return to New York by way of Buenos Ayres.

Mr. Bryan lectured at the National theater here before an immense audience. He referred to the canal, expressing satisfaction with the progress of the work and confidence in the feasibility of the locks, his doubts regarding which had been removed since his visit. He stated that he intended to attend the inauguration of the canal.

Veteran Newspaper Man Dead.

Utica, N. Y., Jan. 10.—Joseph K. Fox, veteran newspaper man and probably the oldest active printer in New York state, is dead at his home in New Berlin, N. Y.

EXPECTED TO BE DISMISSED.

Pinchot Knew He Would Soon Feel the Ax.

EX-FORESTER IS SATISFIED

In Letter to Southern Friend Mr. Pinchot Intimated His Retirement Was Near—President, Too, Is Well Satisfied With Recent Action.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 10.—Four days before he was dismissed Gifford Pinchot evidently knew his official days were numbered, for in a letter to a friend in Atlanta he said:

"We are just on the edge of a very big fight, in which, so far as I can see, the interests are all lined up on one side and the rest of us on the other."

The letter continues:

"I love a fight and you know it does not take much courage when you have all the facts and the other fellow has not any, or, at least, when he perverts them. If the people don't wake up to the necessity of guarding the sources of waterpower they will find some day that the industries of the country are in the control of a merciless waterpower trust. In its nature the father of all the other trusts. I shall fight to balk the interests."

Pinchot Entirely Satisfied.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Gifford Pinchot's entire attitude appears to be one of satisfaction over his removal from the office of chief forester of the agricultural department—not that Mr. Pinchot has said as much, but his manner and bearing suggest that he is full of enjoyment instead of humiliation.

But if Mr. Pinchot is satisfied, so is President Taft. His dismissal of the forester was done reluctantly, although now that it has come about the president and his advisers feel that it was the only proper and self-respecting course to take. In their opinion it will cause Mr. Pinchot to become the chief prosecutor of the charges against Secretary Ballinger before the committee of inquiry.

The president's expression of this opinion was coupled with the remark that he was very glad that Mr. Pinchot would appear before the committee in that capacity, because if there were anything to be uncovered in connection with Ballinger's official conduct Mr. Pinchot would get to the bottom of it and the chief hope of the administration was that the investigators would leave no stone unturned in digging into the Glavis charges and all other charges, allegations and insinuations which affected the attitude of the administration toward the conservation movement.

One thing stands out prominently in relation to Mr. Pinchot's dismissal and that is that the forest service, with its great number of supervisors, rangers, guards and other employes, will become a unit of opposition to President Taft.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO PINCHOT

Jacob Riis Thinks Country Has Lost Most Able Servant.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—"When the country was deprived of the services of Gifford Pinchot it lost one of the most zealous, most honest, most energetic public officials and one of the most able men of the time. Such men as he are the natural result of the better spirit of the nation whose force is beginning to be felt. I cannot understand the whole situation. I am perplexed, amazed."

This was the statement in tribute to the dismissed national forester made by Jacob Riis upon his arrival here.

BUBONIC PLAGUE EPIDEMIC

Ground Squirrels Spread Dread Disease in California.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Bubonic plague, which claims thousands of victims each year in the Orient, is now epidemic in California for the first time in the history of the United States, and, according to C. Hart Merriam, chief of the bureau of biological survey, who gave this information to the house committee on agriculture, the condition which confronts the government is serious. Mr. Merriam appeared before the house committee to give his testimony as to the needs of the biological survey.

"The California ground squirrel is carrying the plague now and is a menace to the whole country," he said. "The ground squirrel gets the plague from the introduced European rats about San Francisco bay. To the south and southeast of the bay the disease can spread indefinitely over the rest of the state and thence easterly over other states to the Gulf of Mexico, contaminating every species of squirrel with which it comes in contact and menacing the lives of the people."

Peterman Has 69 Grandchildren.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 10.—Peter S. Peterman, sixty-nine years old, has received word that his sixty-ninth grandchild has been born. He was married in 1864 and had eleven children. Ten are living and all have families. One has fifteen children. Peterman has also four great grandchildren living.

DARING AVIATOR WHO HOLDS WORLD'S SOARING RECORD.

Hubert Latham, the daring aviator who made two unsuccessful attempts to cross the English channel in an aeroplane, recently broke all records for high flying in his machine at Mourmelon, France. Latham soared almost 3,600 feet from the earth, which was 2,000 feet higher than his previous record. The Wright brothers have steadily declined to attempt such flights, asserting that the risks are unnecessary. Latham was courting death when he accomplished this remarkable performance, for had his motor stopped the fraction of a minute he would have dashed to the earth. He recently announced that he would visit the United States next summer.

DENMAN WILL PROBE

The High Cost of Living in State of Ohio.

Toledo, O., Jan. 10.—Attorney General Denman is to direct his attention to the soaring prices of food. Combinations, partnerships and individuals responsible in any way for the manipulation of prices on the necessaries of life are to be punished and trade associations are to be broken if there is any law whereby they can be reached.

If present laws are ineffectual the general assembly will be asked to pass new ones, as complaints are coming from the assemblymen, producers and consumers alike. Members representing the rural districts are demanding that the attorney general proceed against organizations of dairymen, meat dealers and the produce exchanges or association of commission men in the larger cities.

Some of the members have volunteered to furnish evidence covering the illegal fixing of prices in such markets as Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus and Toledo.

MAN BOUND TO TRACK.

Victim of Negroes Terribly Mangled by a Train.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 10.—Refusing to tell four negroes where they could find the switch key, Daniel Matthews, an employe of the Central of Georgia railway, was bound to the track in the outskirts of the city and left to be crushed.

A passenger train passed over Matthews, frightfully mangling him. After regaining consciousness he told of the attack. He heard the negroes say they wanted to open the switch so as to wreck the train and rob the express car. Matthews will die.

The railroad company has offered a large reward and bloodhounds are trailing the negroes.

BOY KILLS TWO ROBBERS

Foils Attempt to Blow Safe of Tallahassee (Fla.) Postoffice.

Tallahasse, Fla., Jan. 10.—In a struggle with two unknown white safe blowers Paul Sauls, seventeen years old, who was left to watch the postoffice building, shot and killed them both. The boy was only slightly injured. Young Sauls was on duty for his father, who is night watchman at the building, when he heard a knock at the door. He took up a pistol before answering. The boy found himself looking into the barrels of two revolvers when he did open the door.

"My hands came up as they pounced on me," he said. "As they tried to bind me with a rope I managed to get my pistol in a strained position and fired, the shot taking effect, for only one of the men clung to me. I then placed my pistol on my shoulder and fired to the rear several times, after which I was free from their grasp." That every shot from the boy's revolver hit its mark is shown by bullet holes in the dead men.

THINK SNEAD A SUICIDE

Husband of Bathtub Victim Mysteriously Disappears.

St. Catharines, Ont., Jan. 10.—Fletcher W. Snead, whose wife was found dead in an East Orange (N. J.) bathtub and who has been employed as second cook at the New Murray hotel here since March, has disappeared. The police have two theories to account for his disappearance. One is suicide and the other is that he has returned to New York.

The theory of suicide is most generally accepted by those who knew him here.

AIR MACHINES IN RACES TODAY.

Much Interest in International Meet at Los Angeles.

RECORDS ARE LIKELY TO GO

Nine Heavier-Than-Air Machines Will Compete in Events—Much Dissatisfaction is Expressed by the Aviators Against Course.

Los Angeles, Jan. 10.—Louis Paulhan, French aviator, holder of the aerial speed record for one mile, and two members of his syndicate of flyers, Miscarol and Maisson, arrived ready to enter the first aeroplane contest of the international meet today.

They brought with them two Bleriot monoplanes and two Farman biplanes, in which Maisson and Miscarol will soar in competition with Willard, Hamilton and Curtiss in the speed and height tests.

There are now nine heavier-than-air craft ready to compete. The Curtiss machines are the smallest successful aeroplanes yet developed, but the inventor declared that he expected to see speed records lowered this week, while he himself hoped to surpass the high flights of his chief French competitor during the next ten days.

Like Curtiss, Paulhan finds the course not quite to his liking, because the aviators must either breast an incline or go down it in starting. He voted for a hexagonal course and at once a score of road-making machines and scrapers were set at work smoothing out a level starting place.

Curtiss and Paulhan were surrounded by thousands of persons, who went to the camp to see the assembling of the aerial racers.

All the American biplanes, including one built by Captain Mueller, balloonist, have four cylinder motors except that in which Curtiss hopes to make records and take a large portion of the prize money. This is the eight-cylinder biplane in which he made the remarkable flights at Rheims.

TEND TO RUIN COUNTRY

Bishop Candler So Regards Carnegie and Rockefeller Gifts.

Atlanta, Jan., 10.—In an open letter regarding the great educational gifts by Carnegie and Rockefeller, Bishop Candler of the Southern Methodist church declares that these gifts under the conditions tend to Godlessness and ruin of the country. Bishop Candler says:

"The Carnegie fund excludes from its use members of faculties of the church schools and the Rockefeller fund denies its aid if any part of what is given is to be used for theological instructions. Those two foundations embody prevalent notions on this subject. Now, we may as well understand first as last that the policy of religionless education and unmoral culture can end in nothing but ruin."

AN ENDORSED CHECK

is the best receipt you can have. It shows the date, the amount, who received it and who signed it and on what bank it was drawn. Moreover, you can, if you wish, make a note of the character of the transaction on the face of the check. For instance, in paying your house rent by check, you can write in one corner of the check, "Rent in full for January, 1910."

Perhaps you do not know that a large sum is not needed to open a checking account. Small accounts are always welcome at

CHAPTER XIV.

At midnight there was no mistaking the palpable uneasiness with which Mr. Percy, faithful sentry, regarded the behavior of Miss Elliott and myself as we sat conversing upon the veranda of the pavilion. The lights of the inn were all set. The Spanish woman and M. Rameau had made their appearance for a moment, half an hour earlier, to exchange a word with their fellow vigilant, and soon after the extinguishing of the lamps in their respective apartments denoted their retirement for the night. In the "grande suite" all had been dark and silent for an hour.

I kept going over and over the details of Louise Harman's plan as the girl beside me had outlined it, bending above the smudgy sketchbook "To make them think the flight is for Paris," she had urged—"to Paris by way of Lisieux. To make that man yonder believe that it is toward Lisieux while they turn at the cross roads and drive across the country to Trouville for the morning boat to Havre."

It was simple. That was its great virtue. If they were well started they were safe, and well started meant only that Larrabee Harman should leave the inn without an alarm. With two hours' start and the pursuit spending most of its energy in the wrong direction—that is, toward Lisieux and Paris—they would be on the deck of the French Canadian liner tomorrow noon, sailing out of the harbor of Le Havre with nothing but the Atlantic ocean between them and the St Lawrence.

Suddenly I saw a light shine from Keredec's window.

I remarked, "Now, if you will permit me, I'll offer you my escort back to Quesnay," I said to Miss Elliott.

I went into my room, put on my cap, lit a lantern and returned with it to the veranda. We crossed the garden as far as the steps Mr Percy signified his approval. "Gunna see the little lady home, are you?" he said graciously. "I was thinkin' it was about time to'self."

The salon door of the "grande suite" opened above me, and at the sound the youth started, springing back to see what it portended but I ran quickly up the steps. Keredec stood in the doorway bareheaded and in his shirt sleeves. In one hand he held a traveling bag, which he immediately gave me.

He went back into the room, closing the door, and I descended the steps as rapidly as I had run up them. Without pausing I started for the rear of the courtyard, Miss Elliott accompanying me.

The sentry had watched these proceedings open mouthed, more mystified than alarmed. "Look here," he said, "I want t' know whut this means."

"Anything you choose to think it means," I laughed, beginning to walk a little more rapidly. He glanced up at the windows of the "grande suite," which were again dark, and began to follow us slowly. "Whut you gut in that grip?" he asked.

"You don't think we're carrying off Mr. Harman?"

"I reckon he's in his room all right," said the youth grimly, "unless he's flew out."

We emerged at the foot of a lane behind the inn. It was long and narrow, bordered by stone walls and at the

"You long legged devil!" he yelled

other end debouched upon a road which passed the rear of the Baudry cottage

Miss Elliott took my arm, and we entered the lane

Mr Percy paused undecidedly "I want t' know what you think y're doin'," he repeated angrily, calling after us

"It's very simple," I called in turn "I think you may as well go back We're not going far enough to need a guard."

Mr Percy allowed an oath to escape him, and we heard him muttering to himself Then his footsteps sounded behind us.

"He's coming!' Miss Elliott whispered, with nervous exultation, looking over her shoulder. "He's going to follow"

We trudged briskly on, followed at some fifty paces by the perturbed watchman. We were embarked upon a singular adventure, not unattended by a certain danger. We were tingling with a hundred apprehensions, occupied with the vital necessity of drawing the little spy after us—and that was a strange moment for a man (and an elderly painter man of no mark at that) to hear himself called what I was called then in a tremulous whisper close to my ear Of course she has denied it since Nevertheless she said it—twice, for I pretended not to hear her the first time I made no answer, for something in the word she called me and in her seeming to mean it made me choke up so that I could not even whisper But I made up my mind that after that if this girl saw Mr. Earl Percy on his way back to the inn before she wished him to go it would be because he had killed me

We were near the end of the lane when the neigh of a horse sounded sonorously from the road beyond

Mr Percy came running up swiftly and darted by us.

"Who's that?" he called loudly "Who's that in the cart yonder?"

I set my lantern down close to the wall, and a horse and cart drew up on the road It was Pere Baudry's best horse, a stout gray, that would easily make Trouville by daylight A woman's figure and a man's (the latter that of Pere Baudry himself) could be made out dimly on the cart seat

"Who is it, I say?" shouted our excited friend "What kind of a game d'ye think y're puttin' up on me here?' A glance at the occupants satisfied him "Mrs Harman!" he yelled "Mrs Harman! I knowed I was a fool to come away without wakin' up Rameau But you haven't beat us yet"

He drove back into the lane, but just inside its entrance I met him

"Where are you going?' I asked

"Back to the Pigeon house in a hurry There's devilment here. I want Rameau"

"You're not going back" said I

"The h— I ain't!' said Mr Percy. "I give ye two seconds t' git out o' my—Take yer hands offn me!"

I made sure of my grip, not upon the refulgent overcoat, for I feared he might slip out of that, but upon the collars of his coat and waistcoat.

"You long legged devil!" he yelled, and I instantly received a series of concussions upon the face and head which put me in supreme doubt of my surroundings, for I seemed to have plunged eyes foremost into the Milky Way I was conscious of some one screaming, and it seemed a consoling part of my delirium that the cheek of Miss Anne Elliott should be jammed tight against mine through one phase of the explosion. I hung to him, as Pere Baudry testifies, for a minute and a half, which seems no inconsiderable lapse of time to a person undergoing such experiences as were then afflicting me

It appeared to me that we were revolving in enormous circles in the ether and I had long since given my last gasp when there came a great roaring wind in my ears and a range of mountains toppled upon us both We went to earth beneath it.

"Ha! You must create violence, then!' roared the avalanche.

The voice was the voice of Keredec

Some one pulled me from underneath my struggling antagonist and, the power of sight in a hazy, zigzagging fashion coming back to me, I perceived the figure of Miss Anne Elliott recumbent beside me, her arms about Mr. Percy's prostrate body. The extraordinary girl had fastened upon him, too, though I had not known it, and she had gone to ground with us, but it is to be said for Mr Earl Percy that no blow of his touched her, and she was not hurt Even in the final extremities of temper he had carefully discriminated in my favor

Mrs. Harman was bending over her and as the girl sprang up lightly threw her arms about her For my part, I rose more slowly, section by section, wondering why I did not fall apart, lips, nose and cheeks bleeding and I had a fear that I should need to be led like a blind man through my eyelids swelling shut. That was something I earnestly desired should not happen but, whether it did or did not or if the heavens fell, I meant to walk back to Quesnay with Anne Elliott that night, and, mangled, broken or half dead, presenting whatever appearance of the prize ring or the abattoir that I might, I intended to take the same train for Paris on the morrow that she did

For our days together were not at an end, nor was it hers nor my desire that they should be

It was Oliver Saffren—as I like to think of him—who helped me to my feet and wiped my face with his handkerchief and when that one was ruined brought others from his bag and staunched the wounds gladly received in the service of his wife

"I will remember — he said, and his voice broke 'These are the memories which Keredec says make a man good I pray they will help to redeem me" And for the last time I heard the child in him speaking "I ought to be redeemed. I must be, don't you think, for her sake?"

"Lose no time" shouted Keredec "You must be gone if you will reach that certain town for the 5 o'clock train of the morning This was for the spy's benefit It indicated Lisieux and the train to Paris Mr Percy struggled The professor knelt over him pinioning his wrists in one great hand and holding him easily to earth

"Ha, my friend —he addressed his captive—'you shall not have cause to say we do you any harm There shall be no law for you are not hurt, and you are not going to be But here you shall stay quiet for a little while—till I say you can go" As he spoke he bound the other's wrists with a short rope which he took from his pocket, performing the same office immediately afterward for Mr Percy's ankles

"I take the count" was the sole remark of that philosopher I can't go up against no herd of elephants"

The two women were crying in each other's arms "Goodby," sobbed Anne Elliott

Mrs Harman turned to Keredec. "Goodby for a little while"

He kissed her hand "Dear lady I shall come within the year"

She came to me, and I took her hand meaning to kiss it as Keredec had done, but suddenly she was closer, and I felt her lips upon my battered cheek I remember it now

I wrung her husband's hand, and then he took her in his arms, lifted her to the footboard of the cart and sprang up beside her

"God bless you, and goodby!" we called

And their voices came back to us, "God bless you and goodby"

Mrs. Russelle Nearly Killed by the Savage Beast.

New York Jan 10—The special devil that makes jungle cats turn bad in a flash got into Clayton, a fine, big, beautifully marked leopard at Huber's museum He turned suddenly upon Mrs Pauline Russelle who was driving him and his mates through a rehearsal knocked her to the floor of the cage and nearly killed her

Clayton's teeth tore her throat dreadfully and his claws ripped her arms and her right leg Dr Burke said that it was impossible to tell whether she would recover If blood poisoning did not set in he thought she had a fair chance Mrs Russelle is about forty years old and a widow She had been making a living for her self and children ever since her husband died six years ago working on salary for animal exhibitors all over the country She bought the leopards from a Bucks county (Pa) firm

FOUNDER OF THE HOUSE OF GOVERNORS; SOME LEADERS IN NATIONAL CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, Jan 10—The executives of more than 30 States have signified their intention of attending the third annual conference of Governors, which begins here on January 18. The sessions will be held in the White House and will continue for three days The necessity of uniform laws, conservation of national resources, marriage and divorce forms, prison reforms, waterway improvements and proposed constitutional amendments as the income tax, are among the topics to be discussed The committee designated to call the conferences, and to draft a program is composed of Governors Augustus D Wilson of Kentucky Claude A Swanson of Virginia Charles E Hughes of New York Edmund F Noel of Mississippi and James N. Gillett of California. The first conference of Governors was called by Theodore Roosevelt in 1907, but the idea did not originate with Mr Roosevelt William George Jordan of New York widely known as an author student and publicist conceived the plan of bringing the Governors of the States into close touch with one another through these conferences He submitted his plan to the various executives, and it met with unanimous approval

GREEN ROOM CHAT.

THE SOISSON.

"How soon, soon are we forgotten when we are gone"

That is what Rip Van Winkle said upon his return to the village of Falling Waters after his 20 years sleep but the play Rip Van Winkle promises to live forever and never be forgotten Like 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' and a few other plays now on the American stage, Rip Van Winkle retains its popularity There are two reasons for this one being because the play is one which appeals especially to the youngsters, and another because Joseph Jefferson made it famous by playing the part as no other persons ever did or will play it.

Thomas Jefferson son of Joseph, is a talented actor, but he lacks the subtle charm his father put into the part Still the production here Saturday charmed the two audiences which witnessed it Jefferson is a good Rip Van Winkle His part is particularly difficult because he follows a master who literally breathed the spirit of Washington Irving into the play In spite of this handicap the son is making good in his father's part. The other roles are of minor importance Rip Van Winkle is essentially a one man play

Marion Benson made a better Gretchen in the latter part of the play than the first When portraying the shrewish wife of Rip she seemed to hold herself in check and her wrath was not nearly so violent as was intended As the submissive model of Dietrick Von Beekman she was much better Walter Howard, as Dietrick was exceptionally good aside from a tendency to overact his part

Viola and Loonie Fingrath made a conquest as Little Heinrich and Little Meenie

"Uncle Tom's Cabin"

Al W Martin's grand, spectacular $10,000 production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is the attraction at the Soisson theatre this afternoon and tonight. This attraction is classed as one of the biggest scenic productions the American stage has ever seen, it being necessary to utilize two special cars to transfer the scenery and equipment. No such amount of money as has been spent on this production has ever been spent on this much neglected and abused but still most successful and unrivaled of American dramas The company carries two bands 25 head of ponies, donkeys horses and even a tally ho coach, traps and Eva's golden chariot log cabin ox carts and other novelties, and gives the most elaborate and largest street parade ever attempted by a theatrical company

"A Girl of the Mountains"

"A Girl of the Mountains is some thing new something worth seeing It develops a strong plot with very dramatic situations in such a delicate and picturesque style that one must at once place it far above the ordinary drama. An especially strong scene, one that will grip its hearers, is brought about when Nellie the mountain girl discovers that she has been betrayed by Richard Thurston a wealthy New Yorker The scene is most graphic and most telling and bound to command unflagged attention The play is in four acts and comes highly recommended by the press in the cities where it has been seen It will be the attraction at the Soisson theatre Tuesday, Jan 11

"The Man of the Hour"

William A Brady and Joseph R Grismer's wonderful success The Man of the Hour will play an engagement at the Soisson theatre matinee and night Saturday Jan 15 This powerful George Broadhurst play of American life tells in intensely dramatic story of love and honor and is so skillfully constructed as to hold an audience's attention from beginning to end In the company are such well known players as John Robertson Thomas Irwin, Homer Barton, J A Marcus John G Sparks M T Wilson Frank Kendrick, Bernard Cavanaugh, Mart Cody, E H Holt, Alma Powell and Virginia Irwin

SUES FOR STOCKS.

East Connellsville Coke Company Defendant in Action

UNIONTOWN, Jan 8—Alleging that the East Connellsville Coke Company refuses to give him stock to which he is entitled, and that they have denied him the just proceeds of his property George Roth of Uniontown upon presentation of a petition to Judge R E Umbel at chambers Friday afternoon, secured an alternative writ of mandamus against the defendant company requiring them to issue a stock certificate to the petitioner and accord him other rights to which a member of the corporation is entitled The petition was prepared and presented by Attorneys McDonald & Gray, counsel for the petitioner

The writ is made returnable January 21 at 10 A M and is directed to the East Connellsville Coke Company, of Uniontown Braddock Trust Company, administrator of A S Braznell, deceased, C W Braznell, I K Akins J D Boyd and Francis Rocks

Roth claims 150 shares of stock in the company, and also asserts that his share of the profits of the business has been denied him He was one of the original directors of the company each director being a subscriber for 150 shares of stock valued at $100 each

DISTRESS FROM A BAD STOMACH, GAS AND INDIGESTION WILL END.

Your Out-of Order Stomach Feels Fine Five Minutes After Taking a Little Diapepsin.

Take your sour out of order stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50 cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 32 grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring, the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice, your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels tenderness in the pit of stomach bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs sleeplessness belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms

If your appetite is fickle, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any, that there is nothing really wrong Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery

Almost instant relief is waiting for you It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

URGES FEDERAL REGULATION

Daniel Guggenheim Says Copper Market Is Too Unstable

New York Jan 10—Daniel Guggenheim president of the American Smelting and Refining company has thought the present moment opportune to advocate federal regulation of the copper markets Following directly upon President Taft's special message recommending similar action in the case of the railroads, and taken in connection with recent rumors of a huge combination of all the copper mining companies his statement is received with interest

Mr Guggenheim bases his recommendations on the demoralization not only in the business of mining copper, but among those interests which use manufactured copper in their processes, incident upon fluctuations from twenty five cents a pound for copper to twelve cents a pound Mining he says, is a hazardous enterprise, requiring under modern conditions very large outlays of capital, and in need, more than any other industry of a stable market Stability he believes can best be obtained by federal regulation

Much Rheumatism.

A A Clarke's No-Cure No-Pay Offer in The Courier Attracts Many Sufferers.

If there are any rheumatic victims in Connellsville who have not availed themselves of A. A Clarke's generous offer, they ought to get busy at once

He states that if Rheuma, the new prescription for rheumatism does not cure any purchaser, he will return the money without any red tape

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease, because of its shifting nature it often strikes the heart and proves fatal anyone with even a taint of it ought to drive it out as soon as possible

It is caused by sluggish, worn-out or over-worked kidneys, which become clogged and fail to eliminate the impurities from the system

Rheuma acts promptly and directly upon the kidneys, it cleanses them it absolutely renovates and leaves them in perfect condition, able to do the work nature intended they should do

The price of Rheuma is only 50c a bottle Mail orders filled by Rheuma Co, 1000 West Ave, Buffalo, N Y
